The caves lies within the mountains of the Majella National Park, and is accessed via cable car. The participants are invited to visit the numerous speleothems including stalagmites, flowstone, and rimstone pools. It has electric lighting with rough paths, concrete steps and iron bridges. An historical perspective of the caves tells us that Gabriele D'Annunzio, a famous Italian poet associated with the Decadent movement, immortalized the Cavallone Caves in his tragedy "La figlia di Jorio" (The Daughter of Jorio).

After visiting the caves, the trip continues to the River Park Acquevive, a beautiful area, in which are recovered rare flower species. In the picnic area, our participants enjoy the tasty lunch arranged by Coop. Radici, and they are able to use the natural playground for children.

In the afternoon, transfer by our tourist coach to visit the monastery of San Martino in Valle, located in the fascinating canyon of Fara San Martino, and the ancient hamlet of Terravecchia.

The visit ends at the Castle of Casoli, also known as Masciantonio Castle. It's a Norman fortress of the eleventh century, with a tower and fortified ducal palace, which houses two permanent exhibitions. The participants are invited to visit the Wigram Hall. This room is dedicated to Major Lionel Wigram, a British Army infantry officer who played a significant part in developing British infantry fighting tactics in World War II, and he was the first Allied serviceman to raise and manage the first joint military force, nicknamed "Wigforce", of British soldiers and Italian patriots, coming from Gruppo Patrioti della Maiella [Group of Maiella Patriots]. In this room is displayed the permanent exhibition "The unexpected Alliance", which tells the cooperation forged between the British airborne and special forces, the prisoners of war escaped and European populations who supported, sheltered and protected them during WWII. Another room of the Castle is devoted to Gabriele d'Annunzio, and it is of particular interest for a dithyramb written by d'Annunzio on the wall, in thanks.
